For more details on next steps, eligibility and restrictions, see page 2.

*Eligible students must enroll and meet initial eligibility criteria by September 6th for the September 2023 or November 2023 session.

¹Readmit student is defined as a student who has previously attended DeVry University but has not been enrolled in courses during the past 12 months or longer.

²Those interested in a 4-credit-hour course may enroll. 3 credit hours would be complimentary and the student will be responsible for the tuition of the remaining credit hour. Students are responsible for all other fees and charges, including books. Learning Management System (LMS) fees will be waived for students taking only one course, but the LMS fee will be charged if a student takes additional courses. Other restrictions apply, visit partner.devry.edu/chartwells for more details.

³Dependents who may benefit from family tuition savings include: spouse, biological child, stepchild, legally adopted child, child for whom the employee is a court appointed guardian, child of a domestic partner, and adoptive or biological parents of the eligible employee. Dependents are also defined as a domestic partner in a committed long-term relationship. Neither party can be legally married to other individuals.
