

WANT CREDIT FOR WHAT YOU'VE DONE? RESTART YOUR GOALS!

If you've ever hit the pause button on your education, it's probably fairly easy to remember why you stopped. Whether it was work schedules, family responsibilities, or other personal or financial commitments that needed to take priority, sometimes life takes us on a detour.

Millions of Americans start college but face something that gets in the way of finishing. In fact, at DeVry, more than 85%<sup>1</sup> of our students are continuing their studies after a break. Whatever your own reasons for taking a break, perhaps the bigger question to ask yourself is: Why did I start?

Maybe you wanted to pursue a more advanced role in your career field. You might have hoped to create a better future for your children. Or perhaps you were ready to become the first member of your family to graduate college.

Those dreams are still possible – and we can help. If you bring qualifying transfer credits and work or life experience to DeVry you can restart your degree journey to help get you further, faster. From our transcript evaluations to stackable degree programs, let's take a look at how we can help you get back on track toward your goals.

GET STARTED WITH 1:1 SUPPORT

When you join the DeVry family, you're never alone. From the moment you connect with us, until graduation day and beyond, we'll be here to support you along your journey. Let's get started by seeing what education benefits are offered by your organization's partnership with DeVry. We can also review your transcripts and evaluate them for any qualifying transfer credit you might have earned.

CREDITS FOR PREVIOUS COURSEWORK

You put time and dedication into every course you take – and you deserve credit for that. Applying qualifying transfer credits toward your degree program saves you both time and money by reducing the number of courses you need to complete in order to earn your degree.

We can evaluate your previous transcripts and help you understand how many qualifying transfer credits you have. You may also be eligible to earn credit for prior learning gained outside of the classroom, as well as previous work or military experience. You just might be surprised by how much you've already accomplished!

QUALIFYING WORK AND MILITARY CREDIT

If you're like many DeVry students, you've been working for a while, and we think that matters. At DeVry, you may receive course credit for military coursework and training and professional certifications.

STACKABLE PROGRAMS

Tackling your education in smaller increments can help make it more manageable. At DeVry, we offer several stackable degree programs. If you enroll in a program that is stackable, it means you can begin with an associate degree and stack your qualifying credits into a related bachelor's degree program when you're ready to continue your education – without missing a beat.

MORE AFFORDABLE THAN YOU THINK

Don't let the cost of completing your degree hold you back. We'll guide you through applications and provide information about public and private sources of potential financial aid. You might also be able to make your journey more affordable by applying for a transfer student scholarship, or other scholarships and grants.

At DeVry, we offer an array of resources and support for students like you who are looking to go back to school and finish your degree. Take advantage of our flexible learning options and the personalized support and care you need to make it work for you. Returning to college can be easier than you think!
